

Coming to Terms: How to Effectively Use Contracts and Policies with Parents: Webinar Pretest/Posttest

Instructions: Before the webinar begins, please take a moment to answer the questions below in the first column, by circling your answer. At the end of the webinar answer the same questions again in the second column.

	Answer before workshop begins			Answer after workshop is over
	True (T)	False (F)	Don't Know (DK)	True (T)	False (F)	Don't Know (DK)
1) As a family child care provider you can refuse to offer care to a family because of their religion	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
2) Providers are free to offer a lot of religious activities in their own program	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
3) If you care for toddlers you must charge the same rates for toddlers to all parents	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
4) A verbal contract is enforceable in court	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
5) A written contract must be signed by both parties before it is enforceable in court	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
6) Providers can require private pay parents to pay a week in advance	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
7) A provider can require a parent to give a two-week notice to end the contract but can terminate the parent without such notice	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
8) A provider can have as many or as few policies as she wants about how she will operate her business	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
9) Provider policies must be the same for every parent	T	F	DK	T	F	DK
10) The best way to enforce a contract is to have a consequence for a parent who does not follow the rules	T	F	DK	T	F	DK